DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in Japan on 3 April 2003. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the foreign application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 2 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Swanson et al. (U. S. Patent 6,262,445 B1).

4. In re claim 1, Swanson, in the U. S. Patent 6,262,445 B1; figures 1 and 2 and related text, discloses providing a substrate 10 having a gate structure 30; forming a source/drain extension region 50 in the substrate on each side of the gate structure; forming a carbon-containing material layer 60 over the substrate; etching back the carbon-containing material layer to form a spacer on each sidewall of the gate structure (step 160); forming a source/drain region 70 in the substrate on each side of the spacer-coated gate structure (Figures 1 and 2).

5. In re claim 2, Swanson discloses wherein the step of forming the carbon-containing material layer includes performing a chemical vapor deposition (Column 2, Lines 50 – 55).

Art Unit: 2823

6. In re claim 19, Swanson discloses wherein before the step of forming the carbon-containing material over the substrate, further including forming an oxide liner layer 40 over the substrate and the gate structure (Figure 2).

Claim Objections

7. Claims 3 – 18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
